Summary of Communication (Lawyer-Client Sunita Sharma):

- Client states she is innocent. She explains that her former boss, Vikram Rao, was unhappy about her resignation and threatened to "make things difficult."
- Regarding the CCTV footage, she claims she was retrieving personal items she had stored in the stock room with prior permission.
- Regarding the witness Rohan, she claims he was a disgruntled co-worker.

Legal Strategy Notes:

- Our defense will focus on "malicious prosecution" and lack of direct evidence.
- The CCTV description is circumstantial; it does not show her taking any specific store items.
- Challenge the credibility of the internal stock audit, which was not conducted by a neutral third party.
- File for anticipatory bail immediately.
